John H. Clark Wins Bride—Capt. Edward and Miss Ella McBurn Marry—Other Weddings.

A beautiful home wedding was yesterday at Yon's Station, Bedford, town up the trail, the wedding, with John H. Clark, the popular telegraph reporter of the Bedford division of the P. R. R., and Miss Daisy M. Yont, were celebrated in marriage at the bride's home. The relatives of the immediate family had been invited to share the joys of the happy couple. The wedding church was attended by Rev. G. C. Ickes, late of Maupin, one of the most highly respected clergymen of that section. The bride, who has many friends in Bedford and vicinity, is the daughter of John Yont, the well-known express agent of Bedford township. The young couple were attended by Rev. G. C. Ickes, late of Maupin, one of the crew, and Miss Ada Yont, the bride's sister. The strains of a fiddle were being made ready by Miss Clara Brack, the bride's party, the pastor at a o'clock. In the marriage ceremony, which was held at Rev. R. F. Bremser, of Cedar, performed the nuptial rites. An elaborate wedding dinner was then served, after which the newly wedded couple took the evening train for a tour of a week or ten days to Baltimore, Washington and other cities. They enter on their new career with the hearty well-wishes of a host of friends. After the lapse of several months they will enter upon housekeeping in Bedford. They have been the recipients of many valuable gifts to encourage them in their purpose of making for themselves a home. The following guests were present: Jacob Clark and wife, Nellie and Homer, of Mann's Castle, Rosedale, and Captain Sperry Clark, of Cassius; Mrs. Adelia Wenzl, Miss Mabel Wenzl, Miss Margaret Lee, Charles Yont and Harry Dersher, of Bedford; Scott Yont, George Yont and wife, John Yont, Jr., Lloyd Beegle, Cora Beegle, Grand Dibert and wife, Charles Dibert, Margaret Dibert, Mrs. Jacob Yont and Annie Yont, of Bedford township.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bush Mardorf, Bedford, on Thanksgiving Day. The bride's parents were Miss Nellie M. Mardorf and George L. Little. Rev. George L. Little, pastor of the M. E. church, tied the knot. The bride was a handsome young woman. She is a graduate of the Bedford high school, class of '95, and since then has been engaged as a seamstress, at which vocation she has been very successful. Mr. Little is a carpenter and lives at Sutton. In speaking of the wedding the Sax on Bedford says: "The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Little and the young couple are at the Little's home in Sutton street. He is a popular young man among his acquaintances and the Bedford with their young friends, wishes Mr. Little and his bride much success and happiness in life."

DR. TURNER.—Capt. Edward Dibert, family physician of Dr. Dibert, proprietor of the Union hotel, spoke a word on his friend's behalf. On Sunday the popular landlord left for Cincinnati to visit his daughter, Mrs. John M. Bush, at least that is what he said—and he did go to Cincinnati, but he remained there two weeks before he reached his destination. At about the same time he was joined by Miss Ella McBurn, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Miller, and the two had journeyed to Pittsburgh, where they were joined in wedlock. After the knot was tied the happy couple left for Cincinnati and will spend some time there before they return to Bedford. The young couple will travel through the country. His bride is a daughter of Martin McBurn, late of near Bedford, deceased. She is approximately the same age as his wife.

DR. TURNER.—The organ recital given in St. John's Reformed church, Bedford, Monday evening by Rev. and Mrs. Stanley L. Krebs, of Greensburg, was greatly enjoyed by an audience that taxed the capacity of the sacred edifice. Rev. and Mrs. Krebs are well accomplished musicians and never fail to please. Monday evening they rendered, in a faultless manner, the following programme:

PART FIRST.
Organ, extempore by Mr. Krebs (to impress power and variety of instrument): Vesper solo, "Teach Me,"—Mr. Krebs.
Organ, "Adeste Fideles,"—Mr. Krebs.
Organ, "Marche,"—Mr. Krebs.
Organ, "Baptismal Hymn,"—Mr. Krebs.
Organ solo, "Gates of Heaven,"—Tours.
Organ solo, "Jesus Christ is Risen Again,"—Mr. Krebs.
PART SECOND.
Organ, "Graduate,"—Arens.
Organ solo, "Sermons" or "Angels Sare,"—Briggs, accompanied by organ and viola. Mrs. Krebs.
Organ solo, "Southern Melody,"—Fisher.
Organ solo, "Sister, Come to Jesus,"—Hawley.
Organ solo, "Jesus Lover of My Soul,"—Tours.
Organ, "Glory,"—Maurer.

The receipts from the recital were as follows: Sale of tickets, $60.00; from Bedford Gazette, $10.00; from programs, $20.

THE NEW ORGAN.—The new organ was built by A. H. Ferguson, of Erie, and cost $1,500. Andrew Carnegie contributed half of the instrument. The model of the organ is designed to embody the latest results of artistic research and invention and to illustrate the highest perfection, mechanism and finish throughout, thus far attained in the art of organ-building, and although of moderate size, it has much greater scope than organs of its class hitherto constructed. This is observable in the many beautiful and varied effects and in the range of the crescendo, both in individual stops, in combinations and in the full organ, and in added richness of tone contrasts. The handsome case of the organ, its varying display of pipework and its elegance of design, with attractive panel work and carved corners supporting the groups of pipes, present altogether an appearance of symmetrical beauty, making it a fit ornament for the church.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY.—The Tyrone correspondent sent the following obituary to the Allisons November 28: "Mrs. Anna D. Cupp, whose death was announced in yesterday's 'Topics,' was born in Bedford county, October 31, 1833, and was aged about 70 years and 26 days. On January 1, 1857, she was united in marriage with John Capp at Tyrone, and they have resided in this vicinity ever since, except three years in Butler county. Mr. Capp was a Christian in all but the word implies a devoted and sleeping in her lovely grave."

And let us choose the path the chose. And I see again my seat, Beyond this world of sin and woes With Jesus in eternity.

A GRANDDAUGHTER.—Mrs. Anna D. Cupp.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY.—No man is perfectly satisfied with earthly revelations or pleasures, or wealths, because God does not wish men to be satisfied with anything less than the eternal.

DISILLUSION follows illusion. "Oh, how I loved him," the disappointed one cries in bitterness of disappointment. Is a fool's paradise there is no gate to prevent exit or entrance. But a human heart must be very small, when a human being can fill it.

THE SEA OF HUMAN LIFE is easily fascinated, like the legions of Venus. To the Divine there is no plumbum and we lose our standings in the ocean of His grace and goodness.

IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH and only a divided, harmonious church can hope to make an impression on the outside world. The meeting world laughs at the heretics. Christians and non-Christians of such a character should be the cement binding all in one.

THE MAN WHO BELIEVES IN A FUTURE life differs radically with the doubter. To the latter the thought of death comes with fear and torment. To the former the light of hope and happiness shines on it. Fear dominates one, faith the other. Only faith can give the victory over death.

WHEN LOVERS PRAY, their heart need have no care—But when your heart pleads, too, Be wary! Beware!

LIFE IS A HILL to climb, and to its height We go with joy and leave behind—the night.

YOUTH GLOWS WITH FANCIES, filled with dreamy forms, and sees the future bright, without its storms.

OUR FLAG FLIES JULY the Fourth every year. Still goes the long procession of the nation.

THE PRESIDENT FOILED. Our strenuous protest, with characteristic baste and recklessness, called an extraordinary session of congress for the purpose of passing a bill to effect Cuban reciprocity. But the executive reckoned without his host. It was easy for him to call the congressmen together, but making them do his bidding was another thing. They took the bit in their teeth and ran away, ignominiously spilling their driver out of the band wagon. For the bronco buster, of course, this was great fun, but the people, who are compelled to pay for the sport, did not enjoy the exhibition very much. They do not relish paying a million dollars just to see Teddy turned down by the Republicans, senators who are tired of having him run things in such a high-handed manner.

Although, as stated in a previous issue of THE GAZETTE, the house of representatives passed the measure for which President Roosevelt called the extra session of congress, the senate unanimously agreed upon December 18 as a day upon which to take a vote on Cuban reciprocity, and thus a million dollars of the people's money has been wasted and the regular session will open with the old obstacles in the way of rapid progress in the despatch of business.

The action of the upper house was a hard rap over the knuckles of the president. The purpose for which he convened the congress has been defeated and Mr. Roosevelt is pinched in the pitiful plight of being unable to control his own party, and the predicament is all the more humiliating because the senate is almost two-thirds Republicans.

VIOLATED OUR PLEDGE. In an interview with the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald, recently Congressman Hitt, chairman of the public service committee on foreign affairs, endorsed President Roosevelt's prompt recognition of the Panama government, stating that the action of the United States was strictly correct. The Record-Herald's representative asked Mr. Hitt the following question: "But what if in 1860 England had sent a fleet into Charleston harbor and notified the United States government that it would not be permitted to assemble forces there to put down the rebellion?"

Mr. Hitt replied: "Ah, you forget that England had no treaty, not only giving her the right to maintain the peace in Charleston, but requiring her to do so whether she wanted to or not. That was the case at Panama. The United States had a duty to perform to which it had pledged its honor. It is only discharging that duty now."

In discussing this statement of Mr. Hitt the Committee says: "Mr. Hitt misinterprets a very important part of the treaty between the United States and Colombia. There was bitter protest in the United States when England recognized the belligerency of the southern states; and yet there are statesmen today who justify England's course on that occasion. In, however, England had been under treaty agreement with this government and solemnly pledged to protect the sovereignty of the Union, those who at this time seek to justify England's course would have small ground to stand upon."

"Mr. Hitt forgets that our treaty agreement with Colombia was not simply to maintain the peace. We solemnly promised to protect and defend Colombia's sovereignty in Panama and we have deliberately and wantonly violated that pledge. Under the terms of the treaty of 1846, the United States did have a duty to perform. Their honor, it is true, was pledged. They have ignored the duty. They have repudiated the solemn pledge they made; and it is with bad grace, indeed, that those who justify Mr. Roosevelt's course on the ground of expediency refer to the 'honor' of this government in connection with the Panama affair."

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH. Every Breath of Hyoscyamus Helps Hysteria.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows foolish it is to try and cure it by dosing the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure soon comes.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to treat catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now we know that you can carry a health giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it at a distance. Four times a day soon cure yourself.

The complete Hyoscyamus ointment, one-half ounce, costs but 25 cents, and consists of an ointment that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine chest, a lifetime, and a bottle of Hyoscyamus. The ingredients are: 100% pure, 100% guaranteed, and a bottle of Hyoscyamus. The remedy does not cure, for it is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

F. W. Jordan's, sold a great many Hyoscyamus ointments, and the more he sells, the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money he does not cure.

Aluminum Used for Paper. It is stated that experiments with aluminum as a substitute for book paper are being made in France. The metal will not oxidize and is practically fire and water proof. If it is a success it will completely revolutionize book printing, the same as the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters completely revolutionized the old methods of trying to stomach, liver and kidney diseases. Today, no one questions the fact that it is the best medicine in the world to cure indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, nervousness, insomnia, general debility or malaria, fever andague. Be sure to try it. It is highly endorsed by prominent physicians throughout the country. The genuine is for sale by all druggists, to whom apply for a copy of Hostetter's Illustrated Almanac for 1904. It is free.

International S. S. Lesson for December 6. SOLOMON'S WISE CHOICE, 1 Kings 3:15. God's Testimony—The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Prov. 1:7.

King Solomon, the Lord, walling in the stately David, his father, only that he sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places. And the king went to Gibeah to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Once, when burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

In Gibeah the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream of the night and God said: "Ask what shall I give thee?"

"Thou hast shown unto thy servant David, my father, great kindness, just as he walked before Thee in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness in heart with Thee; and Thou hast kept him for this great kindness. But when I have given him a son who will sit on his throne, as is this day."

"And now, O, Lord my God, Thou hast made Thy servant King in the place of my father; and I am but a young lad; I know not how to go out or come in. And thy servant is the midst of Thy people, which Thee hast chosen, a great people, that can not be numbered nor counted for multitude. Give, therefore, Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people, to discern between good and evil; for who would be wise to judge Thy great people?"

And the speech was pleasing in the eyes of the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him: "Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself riches, nor hast asked the life of thy enemies; but has asked for thyself discernment to understand judgment; behold, I have done according to thy word; lo, I have given thee a wise and a discerning heart; so that like unto them there was none before thee, nor after thee; such an orator like unto thee. And this is what thou hast not asked for have I given thee, both riches and honor; so that like unto them there shall not have been any among the kings all the days. And if thou wilt walk in my way, to keep my statutes and my commandments as thy father David did walk, then will I lengthen thy days."

And Solomon awoke, and, behold, it was a dream; and he went to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up burnt offerings, and prepared peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

And Solomon ruled over all the kings from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and as far as the boundary of Egypt, which brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life. He had dominion and peace on all sides. And he had forty thousand stalls for his horses and six thousand chariots, for one day was hundreds of bushels of flour and thirty oxen and a hundred sheep, besides harts and roebucks and fallow deer and fatted fowl.

And God gave unto Solomon wisdom and understanding exceedingly much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand is on the seashore. And he spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs were a thousand and five. And men came from all the people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

Mr. Hitt replied: "Ah, you forget that England had no treaty, not only giving her the right to maintain the peace in Charleston, but requiring her to do so whether she wanted to or not. That was the case at Panama. The United States had a duty to perform to which it had pledged its honor. It is only discharging that duty now."
